

React Project

- The goal is to create an app where a user can see the discography of a band
- The data of the band is inserted by you on the code, and can be real or fictional
- The user must be able to see the albums of the band
- And if he selects an album he must have access to the songs title